

adult summer reading

Jump in and read with us this summer - you choose how:)

Read

- anything you like - and maybe submit a book review...
- along with the 2020 Reading Challenge - need a recommendation? Search our library catalog online, type in "June Reading Challenge" to find books that we've marked for June's Pulitzer challenge.
- WPL's book discussion books - check out WPL's online calendar for books, dates, and times.
- WPL's summer ebook big read - from June 22th to July 13th the ebook The Darwin Affair by Tim Mason will be available through Overdrive without wait to all. Read the book and participate in our online book chat at wpl.org starting June 28th. This book qualifies for the 2020 Reading Challenge book for July.
- check WPL reviews and recommendations on goodreads, YouTube, or wpl.org
- track your books on Beanstack - WPL's online reading tracking - and Beanstack will recommend books for you!

Let us know what you think

- submit a book review by dropping it off at WPL or sending it to library@wpl.org. Download our form from wpl.org or simply write the book's name, your book thoughts, name and phone number on a piece of paper.
- write a review on Beanstack
- join one of our book talks
- leave a comment in one of our book review posts @wpl.org

BOOK REVIEW

Your name:
Phone Number:

Book Name and author:

Is this a 2020 Reading Challenge book - if so, for which month?

Your book review:

How would you rate the book?

1                      2                      3                      4                      5
not for me                      pretty good                      you gotta read it!

Can WPL use your book review on Facebook or wpl.org?
